The Academy’s Vision
Randolph-Macon Academy continues to be an outstanding co-educational, structured, college preparatory boarding and day school having high standards of academic excellence with an emphasis on leadership and traditional values fostered through the United States Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps Program.

The Academy’s Mission
The mission of Randolph-Macon Academy is to attract young people of high moral character and intelligence with the capacity and desire to attend a school of higher learning; provide a dedicated and highly qualified faculty and staff and a positive, disciplined and religious environment; and educate and produce outstanding leaders of strong character and solid knowledge, prepared for life-long learning and effective citizenship.
